Detailed Report

Your marriage windows (1)

You have 1 marriage window on the horizon. These are the stretches when a match is most likely to click — your best seasons to act, not fixed dates.

WINDOW 1

MODERATE

Jun 2028 ? Aug 2033

Core period: Aug 2028 – Jun 2033

★ Strongest months: Aug 2028, Sep 2028, Oct 2028

Mercury Mahadasha — Rahu + Jupiter
Antardasha

- AD lord occupies or aspects the 7th house
- Node on 7th axis and AD lord is that node
- Jupiter transits 7/1/2/11 from lagna or Moon in window
- Antardasha lord is the 7th lord

Stay active.

Keep profiles current and meetings on — matches formed here can absolutely convert, especially in the strongest months. Don't force outcomes; do keep doors open.

Your chart shows the timing; the effort and the choice stay in your hands. Even in a strong window you still have to look — the odds are just far better.

Why it hasn't happened yet

QUIET

Aug 2023 – May 2025

Mercury Mahadasha — Venus Antardasha

Antardasha lord is Venus/Jupiter (marriage karaka)

QUIET

May 2025 – Mar 2026

Mercury Mahadasha — Sun Antardasha

No dasha connection to the 7th house in this period

QUIET

Mar 2026 – Aug 2026

Mercury Mahadasha — Moon Antardasha

AD lord is the darakaraka

Looking back, the periods that passed quietly did so because the timing simply wasn't activated for marriage — not because of anything you did or didn't do. That distinction matters.

Next 3 Year Forecast

Across the next three years the momentum builds toward your windows — watch the favourable months, and treat the quieter stretches as preparation time.

NO MAJOR WINDOW

Jupiter's transit this year sits in supportive houses — it helps carry conversations forward.

Mercury–Sun / Mercury–Moon

2027

NO MAJOR WINDOW

Jupiter's transit this year is neutral — lean a little more on effort than on luck.

Mercury–Moon / Mercury–Mars

2028

MODERATE WINDOW

★ Favourable months: Aug 2028, Sep 2028, Oct 2028

Jupiter's transit this year is neutral — lean a little more on effort than on luck.

Mercury–Mars / Mercury–Rahu

Make your quiet phases count

In a quiet phase, matches may still come but tend not to convert. This is pattern, not personal failure — and it is the best time to prepare rather than push.

Jan 2026 – Jun 2028

A quieter stretch — matches may come along, but they rarely stick. That is the pattern of the period, not a failing.

Do

- Use the time for clarity — what you actually want in a partner and a life.
- Keep your profile current and doors open, without forcing outcomes.
- Invest in yourself: health, work, and the conversations with family that make later 'yes' easier.

Don't

- Don't read a slow phase as a closed door — it is a low-activation window, not a verdict.
- Don't force a decision that doesn't feel right just because time is passing.

NATURE

Optimistic
principled

WHERE WILL
YOU GUYS
MEET

Quiet or private settings

Your indications point to optimistic, principled, freedom-loving — someone with strong beliefs. Where and how you meet is written into the chart too — here is the full picture, dimension by dimension.

THEIR PERSONALITY

optimistic, principled, freedom-loving — someone with strong beliefs.

LOVE VS ARRANGED

Your chart leans toward a love or self-chosen match.

DARAKARAKA (MOON)

an emotionally attuned, caring partner; family approval flows easily.

HOW YOU'LL MEET

The connection may come through quiet or private settings, possibly at some distance.

COMMUNITY & BACKGROUND

There is also a signature for a partner from a different community, background, or place.

How you love — your Venus

Your love-style is harmonising and partnership-built — you are at your best in a committed pair — with Venus strong in its own sign, you can trust your instincts in love..

Your nakshatra: Anuradha (Lotus)

Devoted, friendly, harmonising — you soften hard rooms.

You are built for deep committed partnership; loyalty comes naturally and is deeply needed in return.

These are indications, not a portrait — the chart gives the direction; life fills in the detail.

Manglik — impact, dos & don'ts

You are not Manglik ✓

Mars does not sit in a Manglik house from either your Lagna or your Moon, so the classical Mangal dosha simply does not apply to you.

Technical: Mars from Lagna — clear; from Moon — clear.

Do

- Answer the question confidently: on this chart, you are not Manglik.
- Match on the things that actually last — values, temperament, timing.
- Keep the focus on your marriage windows rather than this checkbox.

Don't

- Don't let anyone invent a dosha that your chart does not show.
- Don't pay for 'Manglik remedies' you do not need.

Sade Sati — the Saturn

cycle

Sade Sati is not currently running. The next phase begins around Oct 2041. For now, Saturn is not adding delay-pressure from this angle.

Remedies for your dasha periods

Remedies here are optional support, never a substitute for action. The order matters: the first remedy is always to act during your strong windows. Treat the rest as gentle reinforcement, with zero pressure.

Support for your 7th lord (Jupiter)

- Fast day: Thursday
- Mantra: Om Brim Brihaspataye Namah — 108 times, on Thursday
- Gemstone: Yellow Sapphire — only if Jupiter is well-placed — only after a trial, via a qualified jeweller/astrologer.

For weak periods ahead

Moon Antardasha · Aug 2026 – Aug 2027

Moon is debilitated in the birth chart — its periods ask for extra patience and care.

- Fast day: Monday
- Mantra: Om Som Somaya Namah — 108 times, on Monday
- Gemstone: not advised for this period — the mantra and fast are enough.

Remember the order: action first — actively looking during a strong window. This is support, not a substitute.

The Astrology

Every classical calculation behind this report.

Method & foundations

This report uses the sidereal zodiac with the Lahiri ayanamsa and whole-sign houses — the classical Parashari framework. Every position is computed from NASA JPL ephemeris data, so any astrologer can verify it.

Ayanamsa	Lahiri
Houses	Whole sign
System	Lagna
Birth-time quality	T0

Your birth chart (D1)

Read as a whole, your birth chart sets the stage for marriage through the balance of its planets and the strength of the houses that govern partnership.

Your full chart — verify it yourself

We hide nothing. Below are the exact positions of all nine planets — any astrologer can check them against their own panchang. That transparency is the point.

Your Kundli at a glance

At a glance, your chart sets marriage in a clear frame: the 7th house, its lord, and the natural karakas together shape both the timing and the kind of bond.

Lagna (ascendant)	Mithuna
The base of your personality and whole chart — every house is counted from here.
Moon · Nakshatra	Vrishchika · Anuradha
Your mind and emotions — and the engine of your timing, since your dasha calendar runs from your Moon.
7th house	Dhanu
The house of marriage, partner and commitment — the main area for this report.
7th lord	Jupiter — neutral dignity
The main switch for marriage; its condition shapes how clear and smooth the timing is.
Marriage karaka	Venus
The natural indicator of love and marriage (Venus, plus Jupiter for a woman) — it shows the marriage promise.
Darakaraka	Moon
The Jaimini spouse-significator — a second, independent glimpse of the partner.

Your birth star

Your Moon sits in Anuradha — the nakshatra colours your instincts, your emotional style, and how you approach closeness.

Anuradha (Lotus)

Devoted, friendly, harmonising — you soften hard rooms.

The 7th house — seat of marriage

The 7th house — Dhanu in your chart — is the seat of marriage, partnership and commitment. It is the primary area every marriage judgement is built on.

Planets in your 7th house: Ketu — these shape the colour of the partnership most directly:

Ketu in the 7th house

a deep but slightly detached bond — the partner may be spiritually inclined; connect from the heart rather than over-analysing

The 7th lord — the marriage switch

Your 7th lord is Jupiter, neutral dignity. Think of it as the main switch for marriage: its condition shapes the quality and clarity of the timing.

The marriage karakas

Venus is the natural significator (karaka) of love and marriage for everyone; for a woman's chart, Jupiter joins it as the significator of the husband. Their condition supports the promise of union.

Darakaraka (Jaimini)

In the Jaimini system, the darakaraka is the planet at the lowest degree — here, Moon — and it acts as a second, independent significator of the spouse, adding another layer to the partner picture.

Rahu / Ketu on the 7th axis

Rahu and Ketu on the 7th axis add a karmic dimension to relationships — often an unconventional or fated quality.

The dasha system & your periods

You are currently in Mercury Mahadasha / Moon Antardasha. Your marriage windows are simply the periods within this timeline whose lords connect to your 7th house — which is exactly what the scorecard below shows.

Current Mahadasha

Mercury

Current Antardasha

Moon

Your top window's scorecard

We gave this window (Mercury Mahadasha — Rahu + Jupiter Antardasha) 5.5 points, which is why it graded Moderate. Every point traces back to a classical rule — here's the exact breakdown:

AD lord occupies or aspects the 7th house	+2
Node on 7th axis and AD lord is that node	+1.5
Jupiter transits 7/1/2/11 in the window	+2
Antardasha lord is the 7th lord	+3
Total	5.5

Grade bands: Strong □ 8 · Moderate □ 5 · Building □ 3. Any astrologer can verify these rules by hand — because this is calculation, not opinion.

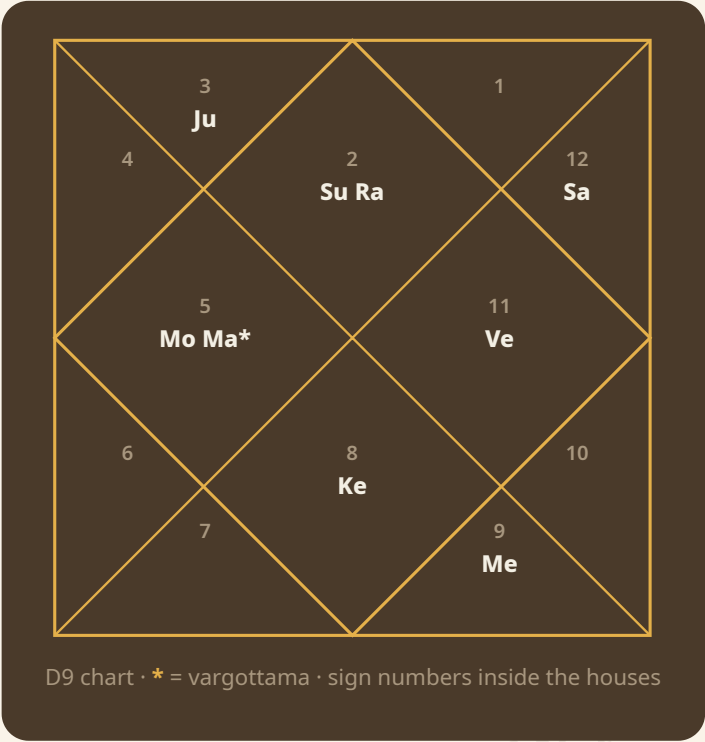

Jupiter & Saturn transits

Transits are the moving sky read against your birth chart: Jupiter is the 'go' signal that opens doors when it touches your marriage houses, while Saturn is the 'slow' signal that asks for patience.

The Navamsa (D9) — marriage's truest mirror

The Rashi chart (D1) shows when; the Navamsa (D9) shows how solid and how it will feel. That is why, in classical Jyotish, D9 is the single most important divisional chart for marriage. Your D9 Lagna is Vrishabha.

D9 Lagna	Vrishabha
D9 7th house	Vrishchika
D9 7th lord	Mars — neutral
Venus in D9	Kumbha

Vargottama (same sign in D1 and D9 — extra strong): Mars.

Navamsa marriage-promise: STEADY

The Navamsa steadily supports the marriage promise — no major obstacle; the D1 windows are the real driver.

- No strong plus or minus signal in D9 — a neutral promise; the timing comes from D1.

D9 speaks to the promise, not the timing — the windows above give the timing. Together, they form the full picture.

A note to you

Whatever the dates, remember this: your chart shows a real and reachable promise of partnership. Use the timing as a guide, meet it with honest effort, and trust the process. Wishing you a warm, lasting union.
